

CHSTM PhD Workshop

History of 'Psy' Disciplines: Psychiatry, Mental Health, and Neuroscience

Programme

Time	Session
09:15 – 09:30	Registration
09:30 – 10:15	Welcome and Introductory Session
10:15 – 10:50	Imbalance in the Immune Mind: A New Paradigm for Understanding Energy-Limiting Conditions? Sally Cross (University of Manchester)
10:50 – 11:15	Coffee Break
11:15 – 12:25	Decolonising the Rural Thai Mind: Ghosts, Spirits, the Buddha, and Transcultural Psychiatry During the Cold War Krittapak Ngamvaseenont (University of Manchester)  In Stitching and in Health Janet Connett (Manchester Metropolitan University)
12:25 – 13:30	Lunch
13:30 – 14:30	Local Authorities and Mental Health Services: Northwest England after the Introduction of the NHS, 1946–1974 Leonie Chesworth (Manchester Metropolitan University)  Confidentiality, Sensitivity, and the UK GDPR: The Ethics of Using Psychotherapeutic Files for Historical Research Emmay Deville (University of Warwick)
14:30 – 14:50	Tea Break
14:50 – 16:00	The Rise of Medical Psychiatrists on the BBC after World War Two Deborah Cohen (University of Birmingham)  Mind and Media in Post-War Britain: Leucotomy on the BBC, c. 1948–1952 Megan Bridgeland (University of Manchester)