

Study International Disaster Management (IDM) at University of Manchester

How studying the International Disaster Management MSc can help you with a career in risk management / resilience building with Dr Martin Parham

Aims of session

- Provide an overview of the course
- How the International Office can help with your application
- How the IDM MSc helped students' employability
- Question and answer

Session Structure

Time	Speaker	Theme
09:00	Martin Parham	Welcome and introductions
09:05-09:15	Becca Cheshire	International Office – how we can help
09:15-09:20	Martin Parham	MSc Course Overview
09:20-09:45	Ensi Kristiani Irsak Sirajuddin Grace Ragosta	Alumni experiences / reflections <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Why they came to the course - What they enjoyed - How the course builds skills for career prospects
09:45-	Martin Parham	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Questions and thanks

Core IDM Contacts

Dr. Stephanie Sodero
Postgraduate Director

stephanie.sodero@manchester.ac.uk

Dr. Ayham Fattoum
IDM Pathway Lead

ayhum.fattoum@manchester.ac.uk

Dr. Martin Parham
Admissions

Martin.parham@manchester.ac.uk

Progression from IDM MSc

IDM MSc - Structure

Core Modules	Taught Optional Modules
Dissertation (60)	Citizen Participation in Disasters (15)	Humanitarianism and Conflict Response Inquiries (15)
Disaster Management (15)	GIS and Disasters (15)	Armed Groups and Humanitarian Aid (15)
Research and Evaluation Methods (15)	Understanding Environmental Hazards (15)	Economics, Peace and Conflict (15)
Disaster Politics (15)	Systematic Approaches to Disaster Management (15)	Gender Race and Security (15)
	Vital Mobilities in Climate Change (15)	Conceptualising the Camp (15)

Modules outside of HCRI	Online options
Climate Change and Development (15)	Risk, Vulnerability and Resilience (15)	Health Systems (15)
Key Issues in Environment and Development (15)	The Triple Nexus (15)	Critical Approaches to Managing Humanitarian Operations (15)
Skills of Development Practice (15)	Community Approaches to Health (15)	Management and Leadership in Humanitarian Practice (15)
Politics of Climate Change (15)
Migration, Mobility & Displacement (15)

Opportunities during the course

- Fieldwork and local visits
- Develop understanding in technical approaches
- Attend conferences (or present!)
- Delivering / creating simulations
- Create resourcing on disaster management
- Learn from / interact with our partner organisations e.g.
UK Med / REACT / MSF

Key information

- Upper second class degree / relevant experience
- Language requirements – IELTS 6.5
- Fees - £14 700 UK / £30 700 International
- Scholarships funding
 - Masters Student funding page
 - SALC funding page
 - Country Specific funding page

How IDM MSc developed alumni employability

Ensi Kristiani – studied MSc in 2024/2025

Irsak Sirajuddin – studied MSc IDM 2023/2024

Grace Ragosta – studied MSc IDM

How to apply

Apply for our MSc International Disaster Management course.

Scan the QR code.

Or any questions please ask me / Ayham / Stephanie by email.

